Republic Day Celebrations at SPNREC, Araria

As the day drew to a close, there was a palpable sense of gratitude among the college community. Gratitude for the freedoms we enjoy, gratitude for the sacrifices of our forefathers, and gratitude for the opportunity to come together as one, reaffirming our commitment to the ideals enshrined in the Indian Constitution.

Overall, the Republic Day celebrations at Shri Phanishwar Nath Renu Engineering College, Araria were a resounding success, serving as a reminder of our shared identity as Indians and our collective responsibility to uphold the values of democracy, diversity, and dignity for all.

Flag Hoisting Ceremony

- The morning of Republic Day dawned with a vibrant display of patriotism as the entire college community gathered in the central courtyard for the flag hoisting ceremony. Led by esteemed faculty members and honored guests, the national flag soared high, symbolizing our collective allegiance to the ideals of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

■ Cultural Program:

Following the solemnity of the flag hoisting, the campus came alive with an array of cultural performances showcasing the rich diversity of our nation. From mesmerizing classical dances to energetic folk performances, students enthusiastically participated, weaving together the vibrant tapestry of Indian culture. Musical renditions, skits, and poetry recitations further added to the festive ambiance, evoking a sense of national pride and unity among all present.

■ Community Engagement:

Beyond the celebrations, Republic Day also served as a catalyst for meaningful community engagement initiatives. Students and teachers participated equally. Various service projects, from cleanliness drives and tree plantations, underline our commitment towards social responsibility and nation-building.

SPNREC's Auditorium

- The college auditorium echoed with the spirit of patriotism as students showcased their talent in dance, singing and speech during the Republic Day celebrations. The stage came alive with vibrant performances in which students choreographed captivating dances showcasing the rich cultural heritage of India. Additionally, the passionate speeches highlighted the importance of democracy and unity and inspired all attendees to uphold the values enshrined in the Indian Constitution. The event not only celebrated the sovereignty of the country but also showcased the remarkable talent and dedication of the college student body in honoring their country.

PAHAL: A new thought, A new beginning

Shri Phanishwar Nath Renu Engineering College, Araria has taken a unique initiative for the students of the rural neighborhood, whose objective is to increase interest in the field of science, mathematics, english etc. to generate interest in these subjects among the children.

College faculties are conducting free classes every day in morning and evening sessions, in which education is being given along with guidance and improvement in Science, Mathematics, Logical Reasoning and English subjects. This will benefit the students studying in class 9-12 and appearing for JEE. And students are preparing for other competitive exams.

Through this initiative, efforts are being made to increase attraction and awareness towards mathematics and science among children, thereby increasing their interest in higher education. With this, students from rural areas get a solid and efficient framework to study in government schools and prepare for competitive examinations.

Through this initiative, Shri Phanishwar Nath Renu Engineering College has helped in giving a strong foundation in the field of higher education to the children of rural areas.

AIM OF THE PAHAL

Under this preparatory section, school childrens are given encouragement, motivation and free education in college in various fields including science, mathematics, english, computer etc. The program is named "Pahal" and aims to generate interest in these subjects among children as well as show them a direct path to excel in the field of higher education, engineering and medical education.

The Birth Anniversary of Shri Phanishwar Nath Renu was celebrated

It's wonderful to hear that the birth anniversary of the esteemed Phanishwar Nath Renu ji was celebrated with such enthusiasm at SPNREC, Araria. Commemorating the life and literary contributions of Renu ji is a fitting tribute to his enduring legacy and profound impact on Hindi literature. Such celebrations not only honor his memory but also serve as a reminder of the rich cultural heritage that continues to inspire generations. We applaud SPNREC, Araria, for their efforts in organizing this meaningful event and for keeping the spirit of Renu ji alive. May his works continue to enlighten and inspire countless individuals for years to come.

On the auspicious occasion of Renu Jayanti, we are proud to announce the tribute paid by our college, SPNREC, Araria to Respected Shri Phanishwar Nath Renu Ji. As a mark of reverence and appreciation for his invaluable contribution to Hindi literature, the institute has established a private library dedicated to Renu ji. This library will serve as a treasury of knowledge, which will have a collection of books written by Renu ji himself. By preserving and showcasing his literary works, we aim to inspire and empower our students to delve deeper into the rich tapestry of Renu ji's writings, gain valuable insights and assimilate timeless lessons that resonate with the essence of life. It is hoped that this initiative will serve as a beacon of knowledge and continue to promote the love of literature and learning among the generations to come.
